Expert Designer

MidSouth boasts a seasoned team of employees with decades of collective expertise. This wealth of knowledge enables us to craft tags of any size, assess current tag requirements, and offer recommendations to streamline production processes. Our design process comes at no extra charge, ensuring that every aspect of our service is tailored to meet specific needs.

Quick Turnaround

At MidSouth, quick turnarounds are our specialty. Need one million lumber tags shipped in just three business days? No problem. Our customer service team swiftly enters an Express Lane order, provides expedited shipping options, and sends tracking information directly to our customers. We ensure uninterrupted production so orders are received on time.

Supply Chain Solution

Our supply chain is fully prepared and operational, poised to meet any immediate needs for a new supplier without hesitation. If there's an urgent requirement, we're equipped to quickly provide an interim solution from our current inventory. We'll promptly initiate the process of procuring a product that precisely aligns with the customer's specifications.

At MidSouth, we're dedicated to simplifying the production journey and delivering exceptional results.
